

Kyoto City Citizen's Actual Societal Experience Survey

Actual Societal Experience with Policy

Policies of Kyoto City (The purpose of the administrative activity of Kyoto City)	Questions	Alternatives
		Agree	Perhaps	Not sure	Perhaps not	Disagree
To build a “Human Rights Culture” in which mutual respect is rooted, and to cherish human rights in everyday life	Q 1. Kyoto is a place where human rights and mutual respect are considered an integral part of daily life.	a	b	c	d	e
To respect the human rights of children	Q 2. Society respects the children’s characters and protect their rights.	a	b	c	d	e
To respect the human rights of the disadvantaged people	Q 3. Kyoto is easy place for disadvantaged people to live for any aspects.	a	b	c	d	e
To materialize a multicultural society	Q 4. Society now allows for people to understand each other and live together beyond nationality, race or culture.	a	b	c	d	e
To make Kyoto a place where anyone would want to live	Q 5. I am satisfied with the house in which I live and its surrounding environment.	a	b	c	d	e
To ensure opportunities for the elderly and the disadvantaged to improve their abilities or work	Q 6. Places where the elderly or disadvantaged people can work, are sufficient.	a	b	c	d	e
Communications between the school, the home and the local community	Q 7. School, family and community watch for children together.	a	b	c	d	e
To promote education for disadvantaged children	Q 8. Education is provided for children with disabilities according to their situations.	a	b	c	d	e
To create pleasant and comfortable learning environment	Q 9. Recent schools have well-established facilities.	a	b	c	d	e
To upgrade services that support the lives of the elderly and their families	Q 1 0. The variety of services, such as home help to support elderly people and their family, is satisfactory.	a	b	c	d	e
To upgrade healthcare and medical care so that mothers and children can lead healthy lives	Q 1 1. Citizens considering starting and raising a family can be reassured by easy-access to health and hospital care facilities.	a	b	c	d	e
To support child raising for disadvantaged and unprotected children	Q 1 2. Enough support is provided for those who raise children with disabilities or for children who cannot get enough care from their own parents.	a	b	c	d	e
To help children grow up happily and healthily	Q 1 3. Facilities, such as playgrounds, enable children to have rich variety of experience.	a	b	c	d	e

Actual Societal Experience with Policy

Policies of Kyoto City (The purpose of the administrative activity of Kyoto City)	Questions	Alternatives
		Agree	Perhaps	Not sure	Perhaps not	Disagree
To promote measures for protecting personal health	Q 1 4. Health-related information, specifically regarding adverse drug reactions, food poisoning and infectious diseases, can easily be obtained.	a	b	c	d	e
To build a system to support mental health care, medical care and welfare services	Q 1 5. Health, medical care and welfare services for mentally-challenged people are well-provided.	a	b	c	d	e
To provide opportunities and facilities for sports activities	Q 1 6. Opportunities, for enjoying sports activities, are provided by local communities.	a	b	c	d	e
To realize a symbiotic way of life with the environment	Q 1 7. Environmental consciousness principals such as, “Clean air, pure river, quite town” are well maintained.	a	b	c	d	e
To make Kyoto strong against disasters in consideration of local characteristics	Q 1 8. City-wide disaster prevention methods is being strengthened particularly, by quake-proof buildings or installation of fire prevention tanks.	a	b	c	d	e
To make strong organizations that can protect resident’s lives and historical legacies in the event of a disaster	Q 1 9. Neighbors come to help each other to protect themselves from disasters, including earthquake, because of local self-managed disaster prevention organization.	a	b	c	d	e
To make a town where consumers can live peacefully	Q 2 0. Information and education have made consumers sufficiently knowledgeable, so as not to be involved in consumer disputes.	a	b	c	d	e
To build walking paths and promote the use of bicycles	Q 2 1. Walking paths have been greatly improved.	a	b	c	d	e
To promote new traffic policies for walking	Q 2 2. The number of people of using public transport is increasing.	a	b	c	d	e
To establish new traffic policies	Q 2 3. The unique scenic landscape of Kyoto City is preserved.	a	b	c	d	e
To create scenic Landscape with local flavor
To preserve the Kyoto’s culture of wood	Q 2 4. Kyoto still has well-preserved wooden buildings; immediate cultural image.	a	b	c	d	e
To develop civic culture	Q 2 5. Civic cultural events are actively staged.	a	b	c	d	e

Actual Societal Experience with Policy

Policies of Kyoto City (The purpose of the administrative activity of Kyoto City)	Questions	Alternatives
		Agree	Perhaps	Not sure	Perhaps not	Disagree
To develop arts and culture that utilize our abundant cultural resources	Q 2 6. Cultural events utilizing unique cultural resources to Kyoto are active.	a	b	c	d	e
Communication between culture and tourism/industry	Q 2 7. Cultural resources are utilized to promote the development of tourism and industry.	a	b	c	d	e
To promote a variety exchange activities that produce city vitality	Q 2 8. Kyoto has become revitalized through its collaboration or exchange with the surrounding cities in the Kansai area.	a	b	c	d	e
To upgrade learning facilities to meet the times	Q 2 9. Citizens can enjoy a variety of learning at libraries or various museums whenever they wish.	a	b	c	d	e
To build an industrial city original to Kyoto	Q 3 0. Industrial activities incorporating various characteristics of Kyoto are very active.	a	b	c	d	e
To promote commerce closely connected to local areas	Q 3 1. The shopping environment within the city is satisfactory.	a	b	c	d	e
To create a tourism industry that will lead Kyoto into the 21 st century	Q 3 2. The development of new sightseeing resources, such as lighting up shrine and temple, is active.	a	b	c	d	e
To strengthen the ability to draw tourists from abroad	Q 3 3. Kyoto is an attractive city or foreign tourists.	a	b	c	d	e
To make Kyoto a town That treats tourists warmly	Q 3 4. Kyoto is a place where tourists are entertained with warm hospitality.	a	b	c	d	e
To promote tourism development across Kyoto
To promote cooperation between industry, academics and government	Q 3 5. Human resources and the results of university research are providing useful input for industrial activity.	a	b	c	d	e
To support the maintenance of university facilities	Q 3 6. The universities in Kyoto have well-established facilities and environments.	a	b	c	d	e
To support the maintenance of university facilities	Q 3 7. Kyoto is a place where young people can play an active part by utilizing venture business support systems or events, facilities and environments.	a	b	c	d	e

Actual Societal Experience with Policy

Policies of Kyoto City (The purpose of the administrative activity of Kyoto City)	Questions	Alternatives
		Agree	Perhaps	Not sure	Perhaps not	Disagree
To develop Kyoto based on conservation, renaissance and creation	Q38. Urban development, with its various features, has been enhanced by preserving nature and landscape, while concentrating industries in the southern Kyoto.	a	b	c	d	e
To carry out measures that support urban development	Q39. Urban development supported by citizens has become more prevalent.	a	b	c	d	e
To upgrade the traffic network to support exchange in the metropolitan area	Q40. The railway and road networks have been upgraded, providing easier access to neighboring cities.	a	b	c	d	e
To build the infrastructure that can respond to a multi-media & network society	Q41. Kyoto provides convenient access to IT (information technology), including the Internet.	a	b	c	d	e
To support business activities that utilize information infrastructure	Q42. Companies are promoting an IT-friendly environment sufficiently.	a	b	c	d	e
To support the elderly and the disadvantaged people with IT	Q43. The IT technology helps the elderly or disadvantaged people participate in society.	a	b	c	d	e
To provide and publicize information on city administration from the citizens' point of view	Q44. Public newspapers or other PR resources have the helpful information for citizens' lives.	a	b	c	d	e
To share information in order to plan, implement and evaluate policies in cooperation with citizens	Q45. Necessary information should be available whenever the public elects to participate in municipal administration.	a	b	c	d	e
To build conditions for forming individualized policies	Q46. Kyoto's unique policies are hammered out.	a	b	c	d	e
To promote administrative operations that incorporate new ideas and measures	Q47. Job performance, as seen in the municipal offices, has improved.	a	b	c	d	e
To re-evaluate public projects	Q48. Re-evaluation of public projects is working well to maintain a check on those projects.	a	b	c	d	e
To create comprehensive the ward offices	Q49. Ward offices are convenient public resources where health and welfare service can be utilized.	a	b	c	d	e

Importance of Policy

City of Kyoto is enacting policies in the following areas below.

Select up to 5 items which you think are especially important and put indicate with a ○ in the box.

Areas • Policies	○	Areas • Policies	○
1 Human rights • culture [Everyone must be fully respected as an individual]		15 Lifelong learning [Improving oneself throughout one's lifetime]
2 Living environment [All people should have equal opportunities to lead an active life]		16 Industries [To have an original industrial structure of an industrial city]
3 Work [All people should have equal opportunities to lead an active life]		17 Tourism [To create tourism that draws visitors]
4 School education [Children should be raised to be broad-minded, socially conscious and independent]		18 Universities [The accumulation of and exchange with universities will produce new vitality]
5 Welfare [People must support each other to live with peace of mind]		19 Young people [Making full use of the ability to draw young people]
6 Child care [Parents should feel safe and reassured about having and raising children]		20 Developing Kyoto with character and glamour [To develop Kyoto with character and glamour]
7 Health (Health care, medical care, sports) [To live healthily in body and mind]		21 Traffic infrastructure [Building traffic infrastructure to support the diversity of city activities]
8 Environment [To ensure sustainable development that places less burden on the environment]		22 Highly-networked information [Building the infrastructure to respond to a multi-media & network society]
9 Fire/disaster prevention [Making daily life safe and strong against disasters]		23 Disclosure of information [To share information with citizens]
10 Community safety (crime, accident, life as a consumer) [To ensure safety, security and peace of mind in daily life]		24 Citizen participation [To form policies that utilize the wisdom and creativity of citizens]
11 Making Kyoto a nice place to take a walk [To make Kyoto a nice place to take a walk]		25 City policy reform [To implement policies together with citizens]
12 Making Kyoto beautiful [To make Kyoto beautiful]		26 Evaluation of administration [To evaluate policies with citizens and vitalize the operations of city administration]
13 Culture [Bringing a mature culture to the forefront]		27 Developing Kyoto with basing ward offices [To promote urban development that draws on local characteristics]
14 International exchange [To promote exchange in and outside Japan]

※ The words between the brackets are the items on Kyoto City's policies.

Interest in Kyoto City Administration

Are you interested in Kyoto City Administration? Circle 1 item from 5 choices.

1. Interested                      2. A little interested                      3. Not much interested
4. Not interested at all                      5. Not sure

Opinion Column

If you have any opinions and suggestions regarding Kyoto City or this survey, please write in the space provided below.

(If you choose any “Disagree” for some special reason, please let us know them in order to provide better measures.)

(If you choose any “No answer” or “Not sure ” for some special reason, please let us know them in order to provide better measures.)

[illegible]

◇ Lastly, the following questions are regarding your personal data. Circle 1 item only for each question.

① Gender

1. Male      2. Female

② Age

1. 20's      2. 30's      3. 40's      4. 50's      5. 60's
6. 70's      7. Over80

③ Occupation

1. self employed · freelance      2. wage earner, including company employee · civil official
3. homemaker      4. student      5. unemployed
6. other ( )

④ Place of residence

1. Kita-ku      2. Kamigyō-ku      3. Sakyō-ku      4. Nakagyō-ku
5. Higashiyama-ku      6. Yamashina-ku      7. Shimogyō-ku      8. Minami-ku      9. Ukyō-ku
10. Nishikyō-ku      11. Fushimi-ku

⑤ Period of living in Kyoto city

1. Less than 5 years      2. 5~10 years      3. 11~30 years      4. 31 years or more

This is the end of survey. Thank you very much for your cooperation.

Use the enclosed return-paid envelope and post the answer sheets by May 19(Mon).