Kyoto Citizen's Social Interactions Survey

Actual social experience

Questions	Alternative
If you do not understand the meaning, or have difficulty in getting the picture of the questions, please leave the answer space blank.	Agree	Perhaps	Not sure	Perhaps not	Disagree
Environme	nt
Q1 Better environment such as clean air, crystal clear river water and calmness in town is kept.	a	b	c	d	e
Q2 Eco friendly technology and effective energy consumption measures such as photovoltaic generation and making used cooking oil fuel are well developed.	a	b	c	d	e
Q3 Individuals and companies who think eco-friendly mindset as a routine part of life are increasing in number.	a	b	c	d	e
Human rights and ger	nder egu	ality
Q4 The idea and practice of respecting human rights is deeply rooted in the society.	a	b	c	d	e
Q5 The society is becoming a place where both men and women are able to share work, family and community activities equally.	a	b	c	d	e
Growth and participa	tion of ye	outh
Q6 Young people are developing passion for living through social experience.	a	b	c	d	e
Q7 Young people can visualize their lifestyle and future.	a	b	С	d	е
Q8 Social environment to support the growth and offer places to accept the youth is provided.	a	b	c	d	e
Civic life and con	nmunity			L
Q9 Community is becoming a peaceful living space for its members.	a	b	c	d	e
Q10 Various NPOs, volunteer groups, and local organizations such as community and autonomous organizations are cooperating with each other.	a	b	c	d	e
Secure civic	life
Q11 Systems to prevent consumer from infliction of damage; and saving victims from illegal business practices are well developed.	a	b	c	d	e
Q12 Number of people who have knowledge and information on consumers' life is increasing	a	b	\mathbf{c}	d	e
Culture
Q13 Engagement in traditional arts is very active in Kyoto.	a	b	c	d	e
Q14 Cultural arts activities are revitalizing Kyoto	a	b	c	d	e
Sports
Q15 People have many opportunities to perform exercise and enjoy sports.	a	b	c	d	e
Q16 Increasing number of residents and volunteers are engaged in sports and athletic events, and other recreations.	a	b	c	d	e

Questions	Alternative
If you do not understand the meaning, or have difficulty in getting the picture of the questions, please leave the answer space blank.	Agree	Perhaps	Not sure	Perhaps not	Disagree
Industry and co	mmerce
Q17 Creative and value added products are being manufactured in Kyoto.	a	b	c	d	e
Q18 Commerce in Kyoto is thriving and merchants are prosperous. People can enjoy shopping.	a	b	\mathbf{c}	d	e
Q19 Job seekers have the opportunities to work vividly.	a	b	c	d	е
Q20 Social business* is developing. * Businesses to deal with social problems such as community development, low birthrate, aging population, and environmental issues.)	a	b	С	d	e
Tourism
Q21 Kyoto is a quality tourist city for the visitors.	a	b	c	d	e
Q22 Kyoto is a tourist as well as a livable city.	a	b	c	d	e
Q23 Citizens are cooperative in promoting tourism by welcoming tourists warmly.	a	b	\mathbf{c}	d	e
Agriculture and	forestry
Q24 Agriculture and forestry are gaining popularity and successors and those who take over are emerging	a	b	c	d	e
Q25 Agriculture and forestry are becoming popular among people through rental farming plots, forest protection movements, and experimental farming programs at schools.	a	b	c	d	e
Universiti	es
Q26 As a university city, Kyoto has a good study environment and provides many opportunities for the students to appreciate and experience traditional culture and arts.	a	b	c	d	e
Q27 Universities in Kyoto are contributing to the international society by their advanced research outcome.	a	b	c	d	e
Q28 Human resource and research outcome at universities contribute to the vitalization of industry and job opportunities. They also contribute to regional development.	a	b	c	d	е
Internationalization
Q29 As a peace loving city, Kyoto is contributing to the international society through preserving cultural assets and eco-friendly efforts.	a	b	c	d	e
Q30 Various cross-cultural activities are gaining force at individual and organizational levels.	a	b	c	d	e
Parental care s	upport
Q31 Children's lives and rights are highly esteemed.	a	b	c	d	e
Q32 Individuals and companies who try to balance work and parenting, such as reviewing working style and men's participation in childrearing are increasing in number.	a	b	c	d	e at individual and organizational levels. Parental care s Q31 Children's lives and rights are highly esteemed. Q32 Individuals and companies who try to balance work and parenting, such as reviewing working style and men's	upport a	b	c	d	e

Questions	Alternative
If you do not understand the meaning, or have difficulty in getting the picture of the questions, please leave the answer space blank.	Agree	Perhaps	Not sure	Perhaps not	Disagree
Welfare for dis	abled
Q33 Local people understand the status of disabled, and the community supports them regardless of their disability.	a	b	c	d	e
Q34 Easy living environment including having barrier free facilities is realized in the community.	a	b	c	d	e
Community welfare	and serv	rice
Q35 The socially vulnerable people, like the elderly and disabled, are protected by the community as a whole.	a	b	c	d	e
Q36 Volunteers like local welfare commissioners are actively involved in the welfare of the community.	a	b	c	d	e
Welfare for the	elderly
Q37 The wisdom, experience and skills of elderly people are utilized in the society.	a	b	c	d	e
Q38 Community watches and supports elderly by creating a society where they can spend their life with peace of mind.	a	b	c	d	e
Q39 Amid aging society, care service is becoming important.	a	b	С	d	e
Health and medi	cal care
Q40 Easily accessible and reliable medical institutes are available.	a	b	c	d	e
Q41 Many public places have adopted no smoking policy.	a	b	c	d	e
Formal educa	tion
Q42 Community as a whole, including parents and local residents, is involved in the educational activities such as participation in the school events.	a	b	c	d	e
Q43 Teachers of different schools along with parents work together in educating children.	a	b	c	d	e
Q44 Teaching traditional culture and environmental issues, which are unique to Kyoto, helps brining up children who can support the society.	a	b	c	d	e
Continued lea	rning	,
Q45 What you have learned through your life is contributing to the society.	a	b	c	d	e
Q46 The awareness and practice of the fact that the society as a whole should raise children, as a treasure of the society, prevails.	a	b	c	d	e
Pedestrian friendly city
Q47 The city is becoming a place where people realize that they can discover and appreciate Kyoto more by walking.	a	b	c	d	e
Q48 Subways and city buses are useful in daily life.	a	b	c	d	e
Q49 Both cyclists and pedestrians are satisfied as abundant parking spaces for bicycles are provided and cyclists observe good manner.	a	b	c	d	e and cyclists observe good manner.

Questions	Alternative
If you do not understand the meaning, or have difficulty in getting the picture of the questions, please leave the answer space blank.	Agree	Perhaps	Not sure	Perhaps not	Disagree
City function	on	1		1
Q50 It is convenient to go shopping on foot, on bicycle and by using public transportation.	a	b	c	d	e
Q51 Community development is advanced on an autonomous base in your neighborhood.	a	b	c	d	e
Landscape	e
Q52 Townscape unique to Kyoto is maintained	a	b	c	d	e
Q53 Kyo-machiya (town houses), where Kyoto life style and culture is maintained, is still alive.	a	b	c	d	е
Q54 Natural landscape including the mountains on three sides of the city is beautiful and attractive.	a	b	c	d	e
Buildings	3
Q55 Barrier-free buildings are increasing	a	b	c	d	e
Q56 Narrow streets in your neighborhood have been improved in order to reduce damages in time of disasters such as earthquake and fire.	a	b	c	d	e
Housing
Q57 Both those living in the community for a long time and those who moved in recently, are participating in the local events and community autonomous activities.	a	b	c	d	e
Q58 Comfortable city provided housing and private rental housing are easily available for people with low-income and elderly.	a	b	c	d	e
Roads and gre	enery
Q59 Kyoto has rich greenery.	a	b	c	d	e
Q60 Roads and parks are well balanced and attractive urban spaces are expanding.	a	b	c	d	e
Fire and disa	ster
Q61 Citizens have the awareness to protect cultural assets, and measures to protect them from fire and other disasters are well developed.	a	b	c	d	e
Q62 In accordance with the increasing awareness for disaster prevention, the ability to cope with disaster in the community as a whole is improving.	a	b	c	d	e
Running water
Q63 Safe water supply and sewage systems are available everywhere in Kyoto.	a	b	c	d	e
Q64 River water in Kyoto is clean and water fronts are enjoyable.	a	b	c	d	e
Q65 Water and sewage service in Kyoto is financially stable and well managed. This will continue steadily in the future.	a	b	c	d	e

Importance of the policiesKyoto City has been addressing the policies in various fields as follows. Please choose up to five items which you think it especially important and check them.

Environment: It aims to become an "environmentally friendly city" where citizens genuinely care for the environment. 2 Human rights, Gender equality: It aims to build a society where everyone is equally respected despite race, gender, physical and social status. 3 Growth and participation of youth: It aims to build a society where everyone is equally respected despite race, gender, physical and social status. 4 Civic life and community: It aims to build a close-bond between the citizens through compassion and cooperation of everyone in communities where citizens will genuinely care for each other. 5 Secure civic life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 13 Parental care support: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of community welfare and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the eldestry! It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citzen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a proper a processing proper provide	to five items which you think it especially important and check them.
2 Human rights. Gender equality: It aims to build a society where everyone is equally respected despite race, gender, physical and social status. 3 Growth and participation of youth: It aims to build the future of Kyoto together with the participation of young citizens. 4 Givic life and community: It aims to build a close bond between the citizens through compassion and cooperation of everyone in communities where citizens will genuinely care for each other. 5 Secure (vice life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parentla Care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citzens. 17 Health and medical care:	Policy field	\circ
2 Human rights. Gender equality: It aims to build a society where everyone is equally respected despite race, gender, physical and social status. 3 Growth and participation of youth: It aims to build the future of Kyoto together with the participation of young citizens. 4 Givic life and community: It aims to build a close bond between the citizens through compassion and cooperation of everyone in communities where citizens will genuinely care for each other. 5 Secure (vice life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parentla Care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citzens. 17 Health and medical care:	1 Environment: It aims to become an "environmentally friendly city" where citizens
2 Human rights, Gender equality: It aims to build a society where everyone is equally respected despite race, gender, physical and social status. 3 Growth and participation of youth: It aims to build the future of Kyoto together with the participation of young ctizens. 4 Civic life and community: It aims to build a close bond between the citizens through compassion and cooperation of everyone in communities where citizens will genuinely care for each other. 5 Secure civic life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build a city that provides abundant opportunities for sport and recreational activities. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to equip community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims respected despite race, gender, physical and social status. 3 Growth and participation of youth: It aims to build the future of Kyoto together with the participation of young citizens. 4 Civic life and community: It aims to build a close-bond between the citizens through compassion and cooperation of everyone in communities where citizens will genuinely care for each other. 5 Secure civic life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members: and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with adults and children learn and gr
3 Growth and participation of youth: It aims to build the future of Kyoto together with the participation of young citizens. 4 Civic life and community: It aims to build a close-bond between the citizens through compassion and cooperation of everyone in communities where citizens will genuinely care for each other. 5 Secure civic life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city by peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims	respected despite race, gender, physical and social status the participation of young citizens. 4 Civic life and community: It aims to build a close-bond between the citizens through compassion and cooperation of everyone in communities where citizens will genuinely care for each other. 5 Secure civic life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build an city that provides abundant opportunities for sport and recreational activities. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members: and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city by the peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with adults and children learn and grow together. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to de 4 Givic life and community: It aims to build a close-bond between the citizens through compassion and cooperation of everyone in communities where citizens will genuinely care for each other. 5 Secure civic life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build a city that provides abundant opportunities for sport and recreational activities. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each compassion and cooperation of everyone in communities where citizens will genuinely care for each other. 5 Secure civic life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build an city that provides abundant opportunities for sport and recreational activities. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members: and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to build an ecorcompact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where e	4 Civic life and community: It aims to build a close-hand between the citizens through care for each other. 5 Secure civic life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build a city that provides abundant opportunities for sport and recreational activities. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members' and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring securi 5 Secure civic life: It aims to develop a city where communities support each other and its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build a city that provides abundant opportunities for sport and recreational activities. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members: and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly City: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build a its citizens live with peace of mind. 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build a city that provides abundant opportunities for sport and recreational activities. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every exitizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 21 Land scape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildi 6 Culture: It aims to build an internationally recognized city of culture and arts. 7 Sport: It aims to build a city that provides abundant opportunities for sport and recreational activities. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members: and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly City: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 22 Buildings: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally a 7 Sport: It aims to build a city that provides abundant opportunities for sport and recreational activities. 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members: and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and cu Recommerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city." 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond betw 8 Commerce and Industry: It aims to build a city that can create new value added products. 9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, ii. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: building quality. 25 Ro
9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, K
9 Tourism: It aims to apply the spirit of tourism, and build a globally tourism appealing city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery city. 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It 10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that would foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members: and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind.
Nould foster people, life, and the environment. 11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind.
11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citiz	10 Agriculture and forestry: It aims to build an agricultural and forestry industry that
11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and enhance their vitality. 12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citiz	would foster people, life, and the environment.
12 Internationalization: It aims to build an international city, appealing to both residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water r	11 Universities: It aims to build a city which embrace multiple universities and residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the l	enhance their vitality.
residents and visitors. 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the l 13 Parental care support: It aims to develop a city where citizens and communities as a whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now whole take part in bringing up our children. 14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
14 Welfare for the disabled: It aims to build a city where everyone, regardless of their physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
physical ability acknowledge each other's differences and support each other. 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.	14 Welfare for the disabled : It aims to build a city where everyone regardless of their 15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
communities through the autonomy and cooperation of community members; and to strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.	15 Community welfare and services: It aims to encourage independence of strengthen and enhance the effectiveness of community welfare. 16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
16 Welfare for the elderly: It aims to build a city of health and longevity for every citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
citizen. 17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
17 Health and medical care: It aims to build a lively yet peaceful Kyoto, a "happy and healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
healthy city". 18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
18 Formal Education: It aims to equip children with "living skills" in cooperation with all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now. all citizens. 19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
19 Continued learning: The whole city is our school. It aims to develop a city where both adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.	1 ,, adults and children learn and grow together. 20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
20 Pedestrian friendly city: It aims to develop a "pedestrian friendly Kyoto" prioritizing people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
people and public transportation. 21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.	adults and children learn and grow together.
21 Land utilization: It aims to build an eco-compact city, i. e. a compact city with minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
minimum burden on the earth, where each community has it's own attraction and supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
supports sustainable city growth. 22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
22 Landscape: It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
continues to be globally appealing. 23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.	supports sustainable city growth.
23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.	22 Landscape : It aims to build a city exhibiting its 1200 year history and culture that security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.	continues to be globally appealing.
security and improving building quality. 24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.	23 Buildings: It aims to build a people-friendly and peaceful city through ensuring 24 Housing : bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery : It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention : It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water : It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.	security and improving building quality.
unique Kyoto-style housing and city development. 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.	24 Housing: bond between people leads us into the future, inherit and improve the 25 Roads and greenery: It aims to develop roads and greenery that are in harmony with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
with the natural features and history of the city. 26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
26 Fire and disaster prevention: It aims to develop a "peaceful city, Kyoto" with well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water: It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
well-prepared disaster plans where citizens could continue living with peace of mind. 27 Running water : It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
27 Running water : It aims to pass to the future generation Kyoto's water resources that have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
have sustainably supported people, the city, and the lives of citizens till now.
N Dhannana aharra aga aatah sahanaan aharrisan dagaatsas at aash saalisir tiald 'l'lea "//aata	* Phrases above are catch phrases showing direction of each policy field in The	Mastan

* Phrases above are catch phrases showing direction of each policy field in The Master Plan of Kyoto City.

Interest in Kyoto City Administration

Are you interested in the city administration? Circle one from box.

- 1. Interested 2. Somewhat interested 3. Not much interested
- 4. Not interested at all 5. Not sure

Sense of happiness

Do you think you are happy now?

- 1. I am quite happy. 2. I am mostly happy. 3. I cannot say which.
- 4. I am less happy. 5. I am not happy.

Opinion Column

Please feel free to describe your opinion and suggestion to the city and on this survey. (Give us reasons especially for those who left it blank or answered "Disagree or Not sure".)

♦ About yourself. Please pick the appropriate one and circle its number.

① Gender

1. Male 2. Female

② Age

1. 20's 2. 30's 3. 40's 4. 50's 5. 60's 6. 70's 7. Over80

3 Occupation

- 1. Self-employed, freelance 2. Company or public employee 3. Homemaker
- 4. Student 5. Unemployed 6. Others (

4 Place of residence

- 1. Kita-ku 2. Kamigyo-ku 3. Sakyo-ku 4. Nakagyo-ku
- 5. Higashiyama-ku 6. Yamashina-ku 7. Shimogyo-ku 8. Minami-ku 9. Ukyo-ku
- 1 O. Nishikyo-ku 1 1. Fushimi-ku

⑤ Period as a resident of Kyoto City

1. Less than 5 years 2. 5 to 10 years 3. 11 to 30 years 4. 31 years and more

This is the end of survey. Thank you very much for your cooperation. Use the enclosed return-paid envelope and post the answer sheets by May 28(Mon).