

Kyoto Citizens' Charter

The Citizens' Charter was established in 1956 to provide rules for citizens to develop the beauty and wealth of the city.

Text:

We, the citizens of Kyoto, are proud to be citizens of the international tourism city Kyoto and adopt this charter that all citizens must follow for the development of the beauty and wealth of Kyoto City.

This charter sets forward that citizens should be aware of their actions as not to cause trouble to other people, reflect on matters together, and adjust one's behavior in accordance to the rules.

- We, Kyoto citizens, will build a beautiful city.
- We, Kyoto citizens, will cultivate a clean environment.
- We, Kyoto citizens, will develop virtuous manners and customs.
- We, Kyoto citizens, will protect cultural heritages.
- We, Kyoto citizens, will warmly welcome tourists.
